

AMPLIFYING INDIGENOUS VOICES

FULL-SERVICE DIGITAL STORYTELLING & COMMUNICATIONS SUPPORT

VISION:

To live in a world where all Indigenous people are safe, resourced, valued, and respected.

VALUES:

- Respect & Humility
- Decolonization & Collaboration
- Culturally Competent
- Sustainability & Accessibility
- People Before Profits
- Kind, Positive & Proactive

MISSION:

Our mission is to center, uplift, and amplify the accomplishments, spirit, and culture of the people we serve.

We achieve our mission by supporting Indigenous leaders to amplify initiatives, engage community members, and create buy-in.

WHO WE ARE

ABOUT:

Remarkable Communications is a Victoria, BC-based communications agency that exists to Amplify Indigenous Voices.

Our team of 13+ staff provides a complete range of on-site, online, and studio-based multimedia services to support Indigenous leaders, community members, and organizations meet their objectives.

(learn more on our website) remarkablecommunications.com

MEET THE REMARKABLES

Laurel Anne Stark

CEO and Founder

Eli Nakatsuka

Project Manager

Nadine Langelo

Project Manager

Amy Colman

Project Manager

Emma Bishop

Project Manager

Adje Eversley

Project Coordinator

Jessi Bertic

Operations Coordinator

David Jam Ramjattan

Strategic Consultant

Moriah Arnold

Senior Writer

Rochelle Singh

Senior Graphic Designer

Jeannie Chipps

Visual Artist

Anri Yoshizawa

Content Creator

Taylor Sato

Web Developer

HOW WE HELP

COMMUNICATIONS
STRATEGY & SUPPORT

SOCIAL MEDIA
STRATEGY & SUPPORT

DIGITAL
STORYTELLING

10+ EXPERTS
SERVING YOU

ELECTRONIC
& PRINT MATERIALS

TRAINING
& WORKSHOPS

EVENT
& MEDIA SUPPORT

4+ YEARS WORKING
IN COMMUNITY

CARE & CULTURE PLANNER

Scan to learn more

Welcome! To Your Care & Culture Planner

4 PILLARS of WSÁNEĆ culture

1. LANGUAGE
2. 13 MOONS
3. PLACE NAMES
4. SELF CARE

LANGUAGE

Language is the first pillar of this planner. Let's begin with some common phrases and words!

The WSÁNEĆ (Tsawout, Tsaycym, Pauqochin and Tsartlip), lək̓'wəjən (Songhees, Esquimalt), SCÁNEW (Beecher Bay) Klallam, and T'sou-ke communities all have distinct and rich histories, languages or dialects, and traditions.

Despite the unique and proud histories of the many Coast Salish Nations, we know they were never entirely separate from one another.

These communities are, and always have been, connected through marriage, trade, ceremony, laws, and beliefs.

SOUND IT OUT

Scan the QR code to hear the phrases you see in this planner, spoken by both a Knowledge Holder and a Youth community member!

WELLNESS WHEEL

HEALTHY HABIT TRACKER

CULTURE & CARE DAILY PLANNER

DATE: _____ S M T W T F S

PRIORITIES

MONDAY _____ FRIDAY _____

TUESDAY _____ SATURDAY _____

WEDNESDAY _____ SUNDAY _____

THURSDAY _____ WEEKLY GOALS

WELLNESS WHEEL

NEW WORD I LEARNED: _____

WHERE IS THE MOON?: _____

WHAT I LEARNED ABOUT MY SELF CARE THIS WEEK: _____

★ WEEKLY BUDGET

NOTES

HIYACE means "goodbye" in SENĆOTEN

In the fall of 2023, NIŁ TU,O Child and Family Services Society released an innovative and immersive new tool to support Coast Salish young adults and community members: the NIŁ TU,O Culture & Care Daily Planner. The Remarkable team managed the project from concept to completion and delivered the planner in under 90 days. We are honoured to receive multiple media recognitions for its innovative and interactive approach to supporting young adults within the seven communities that NIŁ TU,O serves.

2024 CALENDAR

Scan to learn more

This artwork was submitted by Chloe, 11 years old, from Tsartlip.
This is a drawing of two seasons. Chloe likes drawing.

CHLOIE

Strengthening our Coast Salish Families for 25+ years

January 2024

Some native butterflies are overwintering in vegetation - keep an eye out for their cocoons

Sun	Mon	Tues	Wed	Thur	Fri	Sat
31	1	2	3	4	5	6
7	8	9	10	11	12	13
14	15	16	17	18	19	20
21	22	23	24	25	26	27
28	29	30	31	1	2	3

notes:

- stat holiday
- monthly event

1: New Year's Day

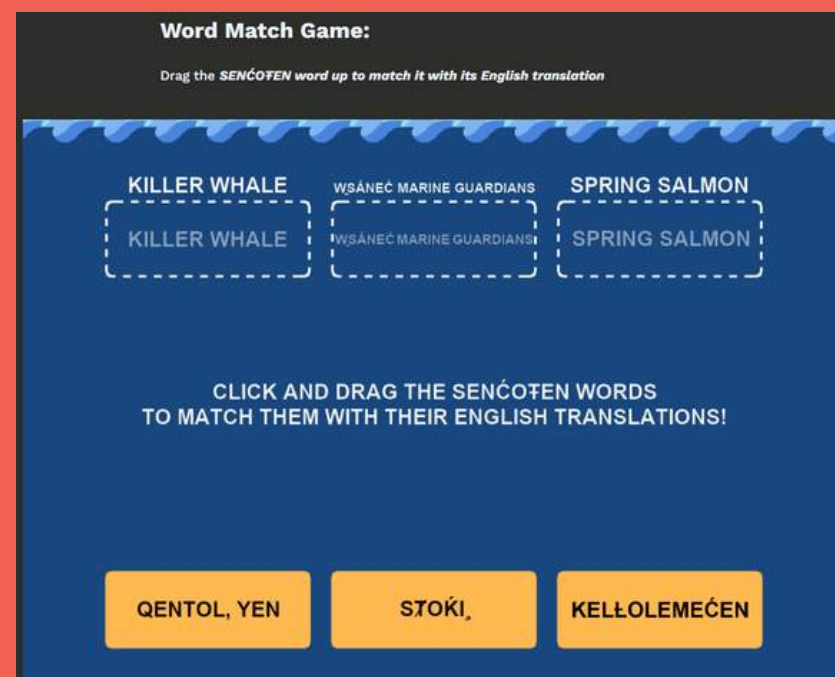

Dive into our 2024 Calendar portfolio item, a vibrant showcase of community youth art paired with insightful Indigenous plant information.

- Youth art contest generated over 30 submissions
- Powerful collaboration that celebrates local talent

INTERACTIVE SENĆOŦEN GAME

Scan to learn more

QENTOL, YEN
WSÁNEĆ Marine Guardians

Explore our engaging language game, a creative and interactive way to learn the SENĆOŦEN language. By matching phrases, players not only acquire vocabulary but also gain a deeper understanding of the language.

- Interactive language resource

2023 TSARTLIP ANNUAL REPORT

Scan to learn more

Message from Chief and Council

TSARTLIP FIRST NATION

Shown here: Back row from left to right:

Councillor Gord Elliott, Councillor Phillip Tom, Chief Don Tom, Councillor Howard Morris, Councillor Lawrence Bartleman, Councillor Simon Smith Jr, Councillor Jeanine Cooper, Councillor Verna Ellsworth, Councillor Curtis Olson. Not Pictured: Councillor Joe Seward

ÍY, SŁÁCEL / Good day,

We are excited to share a few updates since our last annual report.

RIRSD Table, Negotiations and Priorities

In 2022, Tsartlip rejoined the Recognition of Indigenous Rights and Self-Determination (RIRSD) Table with the Federal government. Earlier this year, Tsartlip Chief and Council met to establish a vision and set priorities for the RIRSD table. For the 2023-2024 fiscal year, Tsartlip's priorities for the RIRSD Table include: establishing a community consultation and engagement strategy, consulting with the community and interest groups, researching historical breaches of the Douglas Treaty, researching co-jurisdiction models for lands and resources, and developing an economic development strategy.

MÁWUEĆ, the Former Woodwynn Farm

As you recall, we reported on the contamination discovered at the farm; we are pleased to announce we've secured an additional million dollars this past year from the Province to execute a remediation plan at the property. Next, we meet with Canada to continue to expedite addition to reserve negotiations. Both these steps are important milestones to ensure the farm is returned to ecological balance and provides value for our growing membership.

TSARTLIP FIRST NATION

#1 Boat Ramp Road | Brentwood Bay BC V8M 1N9 | P: (250) 652-9988 | E: reception@tsartlip.com | tsartlip.com

Tsartlip First Nation | 2023 Annual Report | Message from Chief and Council 1

Our 2023 Tsartlip Annual Report offers a comprehensive overview of our community's achievements and endeavours throughout the year.

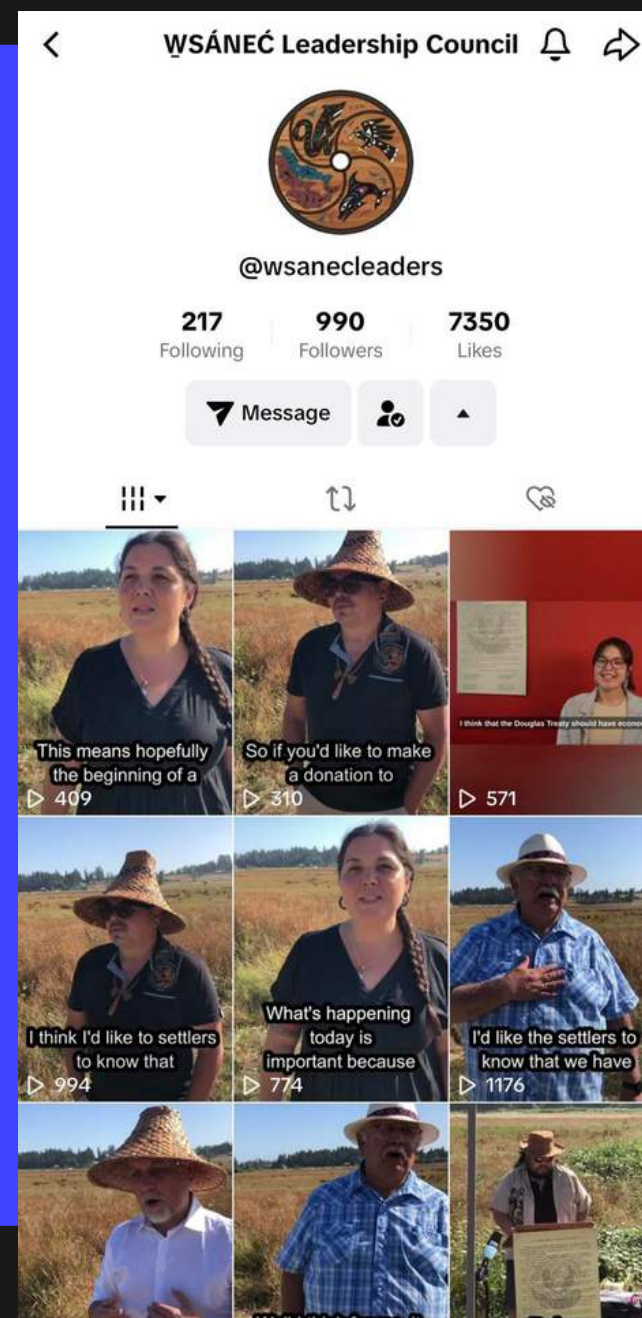

- Messages from the Chief and Council and our Administrator
- Financial achievements detailed in our Financial Statements
- Reflects our dedication to community well-being, responsible stewardship, and continued growth across various sectors

remarkablecommunications.com

TIKTOK CONTENT

Scan to learn more

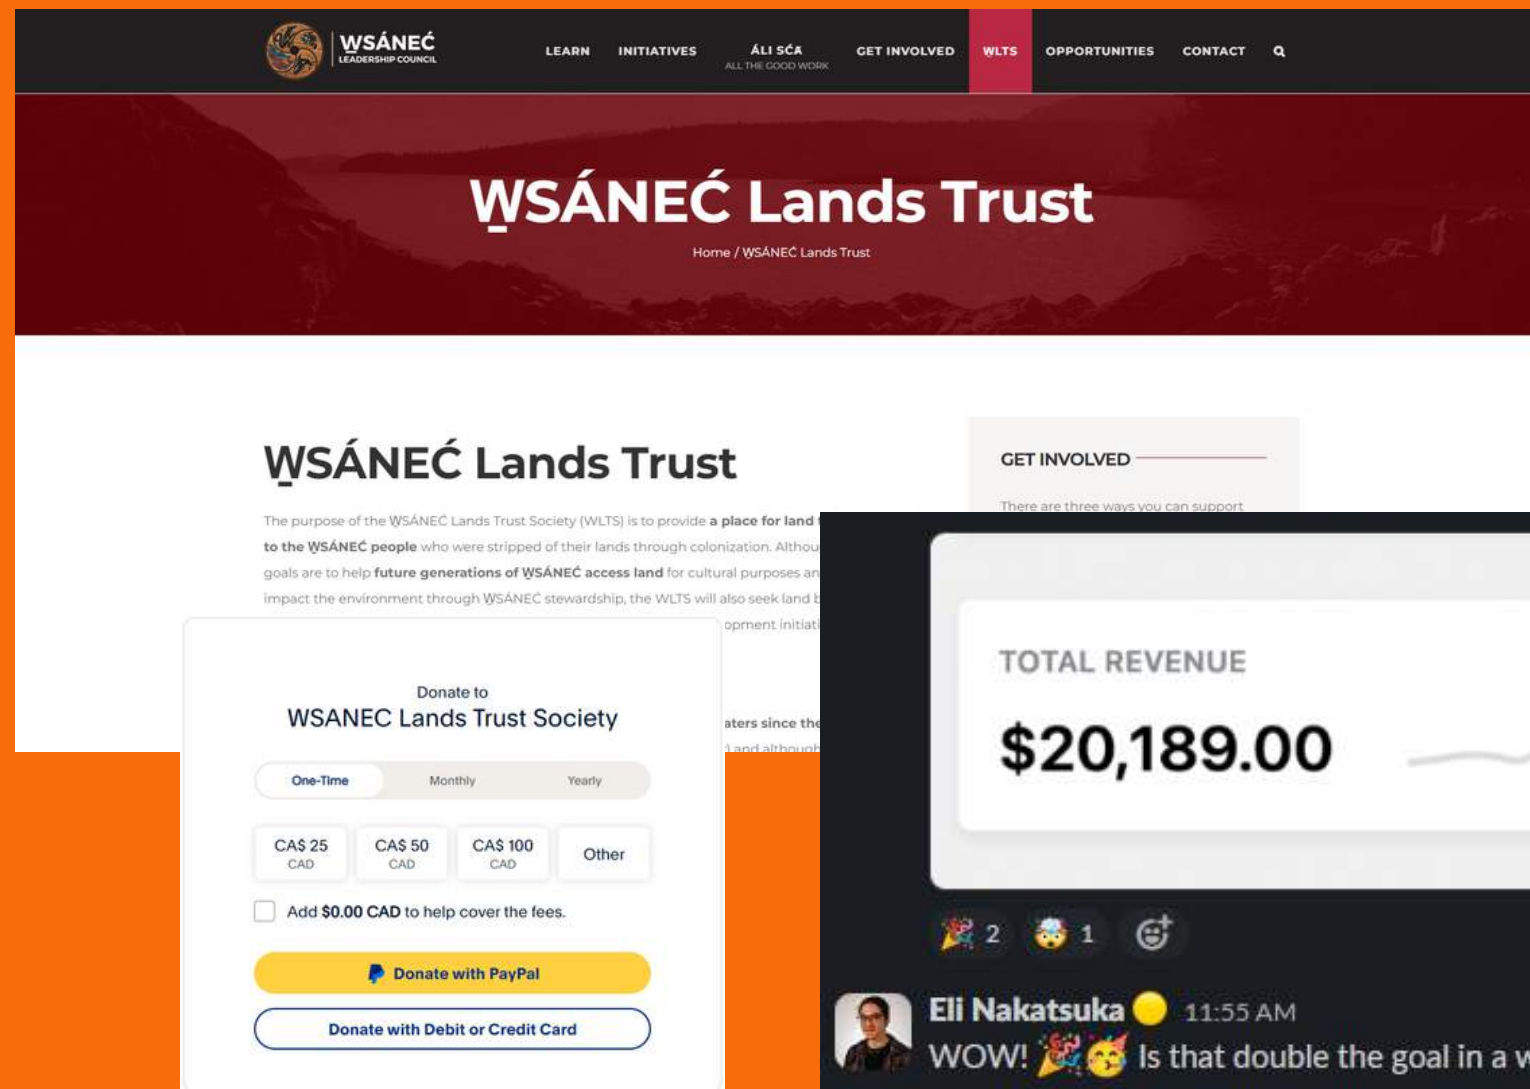

Our client's TikTok channel, dedicated to sharing Douglas Treaty information, has been a resounding success, consistently attracting hundreds of views per video.

- Our video discussing the Land Back movement garnered a remarkable 28,000 views
- Our video campaign also inspired over 20 youth leadership council nominations

WSÁNEĆ LANDS TRUST SOCIETY DONATIONS

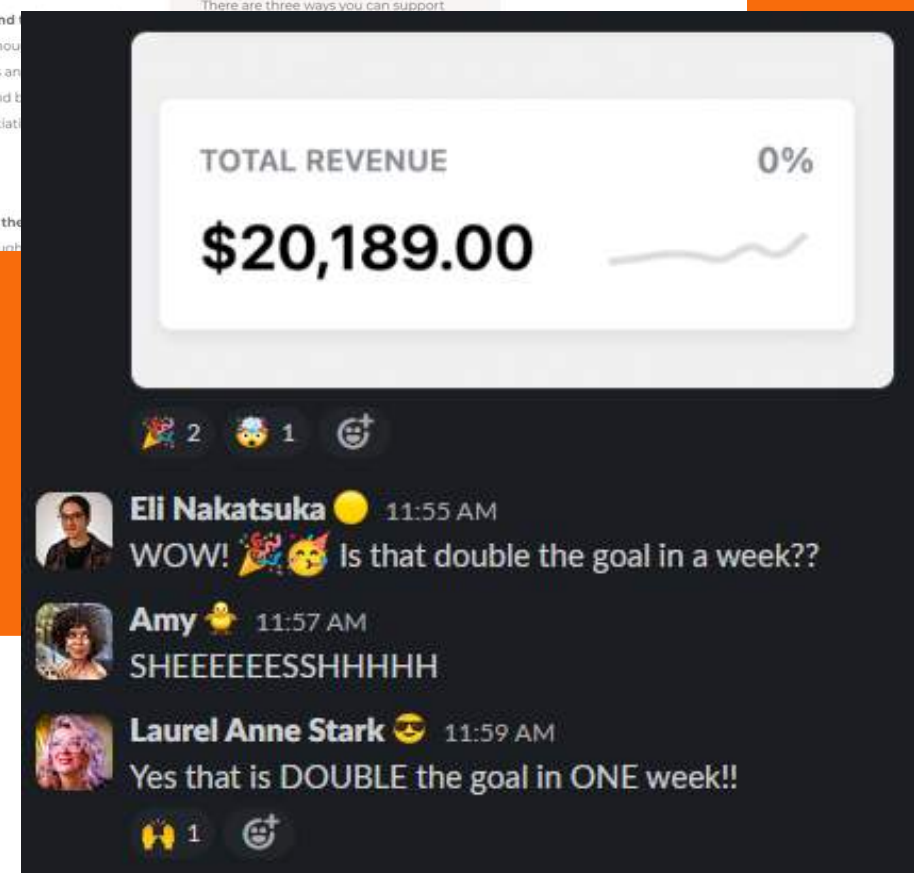

Scan to learn more

WSÁNEĆ
LEADERSHIP COUNCIL

The Land Back movement is an Indigenous-led initiative that seeks to reclaim and protect Indigenous lands and rights.

- In just three weeks, the campaign raised over $35,000.

remarkablecommunications.com

YOUTH-LED PODCAST

Scan to learn more

About Podcast

Kwe'! Ullaakut! Welcome!
Coming to you from Lkwungen & Algonquin territories, just two Indigenous girls tryna make it in an Urban world!
Join us in discussing who we are, how we got here and everything between.

SPILLING LABRADOR TEA UNDER CEDAR TREES

Here's to a Remarkable start!

Posted November 10, 2023

00:00:00 ————— 00:14:54

Hide description ^

Season 3: Distorted Path - Indigenous Stories of the Child Welfare System. This season, we are bringing it closer to home and focusing on Canada's child welfare system. As second generation survivors of the 60s scoop ourselves, we wanted to spend some time sharing stories of folks who have grown up in care or worked in the child welfare system. We know these stories are hard to hear, but it is so important to understand how this system works and recognize the many ways people are resisting and challenging systems of oppression.

With this season, we will also be trying something new and bringing together some amazing storytellers so we can have some lighter episodes (where you don't have to just listen to our voices). Do you have a story or poem you'd like to share? Message us and let us know!

Season 3 brought to you and supported by Remarkable Communications! Thanks for the studio space friends!

Our sponsorship and collaboration of Spilling Labrador Tea Under Cedar Trees supports Indigenous Youth Led Initiatives, Stories, Language and Culture.

- We are providing studio space, communications & financial support to the podcast.
- Season three aims to amplify the stories of, and raise awareness and funds for 60's scoop survivors.

NEURODIVERSE ACCESSIBILITY VIDEO

Scan to learn more

Our animated video, a standout portfolio item, has significantly enhanced accessibility for neurodiverse community members.

- Presenting information in a visually engaging and sensory-friendly format
- We've made valuable content more inclusive and engaging, fostering a deeper understanding and connection with a broader audience

INTERNAL COMMUNICATIONS

Scan to learn more

📧 WLC January Audio Newsletter by You

Hello, this is a message from the WSÁNEĆ Leadership Council. Please click to listen to our January 2024 Audio Newsletter.

<https://wsanec.com/wp-content/uploads/2024/01/WLC-Audio-Newsletter-Jan-2024.mp3>

For more information on these topics, please visit wsanec.com
Reply stop to unsubscribe

2:17 PM

Hello, this is a message from the WLC. Please click to hear an update on the files we've been working on:

wsanec.com

If you want more information on any of the topics outlined, you can text your question to this number, email us at info@wsanec.com or drop by our offices to chat.
Reply stop to stop

Hello! This is NĪ TU,O's new SMS number. 😊 Pls save it to your contacts.
Reply stop to stop

Next, check out this week's good news! <https://niltuo.ca/internalnewsletter/>
Reply stop to stop

WSÁNEĆ
LEADERSHIP COUNCIL

We streamlined communication by introducing audio updates via SMS:

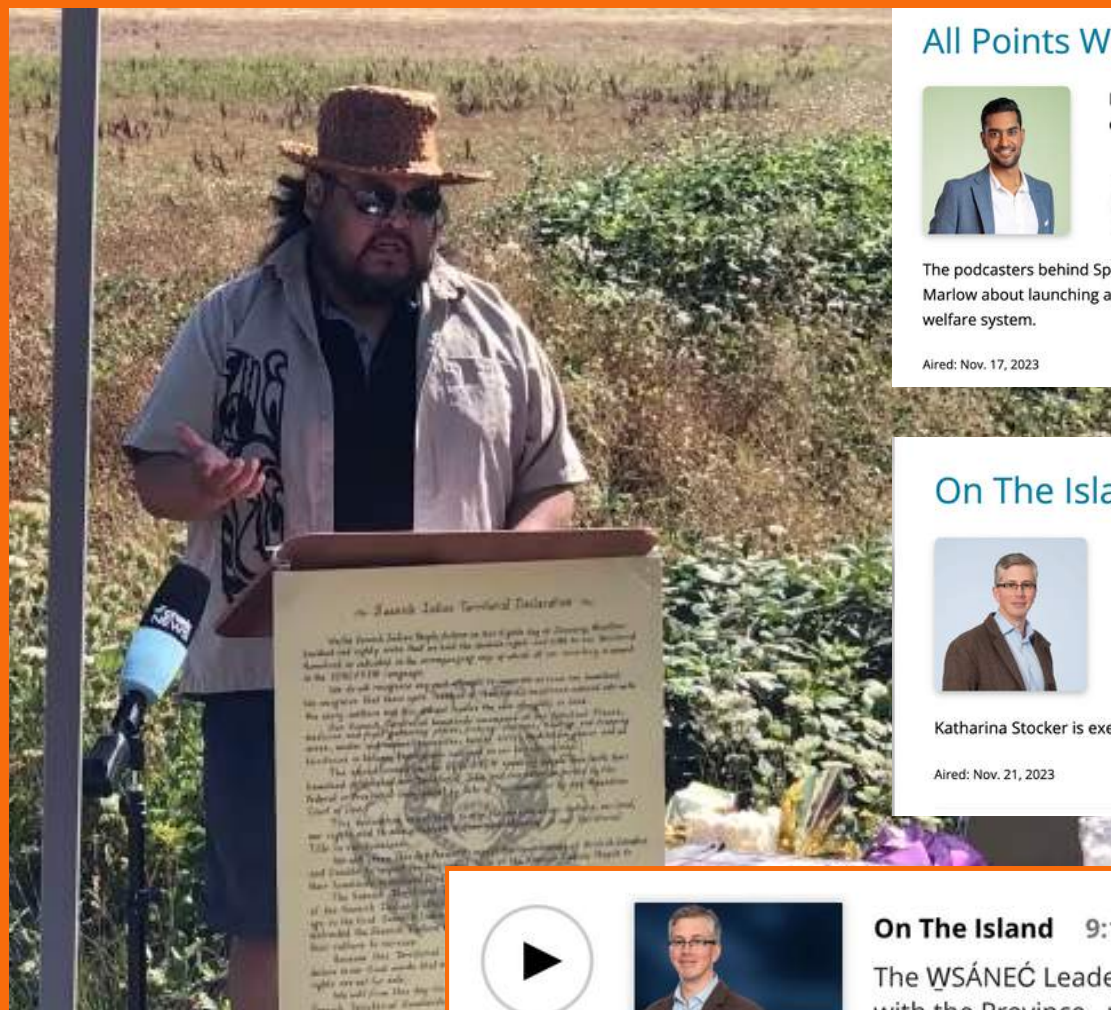

- WLC utilizes this for their board of directors while NĪ TU,O does for their staff
- Convenience for multitasking
- Aligns with Coast Salish oral tradition
- Streamlined critical updates, minimizing emails
- 100% open rate

remarkablecommunications.com

NATIONAL & LOCAL MEDIA ATTENTION

Scan to learn more

All Points West with Jason D'Souza

New podcast season explores Indigenous experience with child welfare system to promote healing, awareness

▶ Play Segment 10:37 ◀ Share Segment

The podcasters behind Spilling Labrador Tea Under Cedar Trees tell guest host Kathryn Marlow about launching a new season that explores Indigenous experiences with the child welfare system.

Aired: Nov. 17, 2023

On The Island with Gregor Craigie

Hear about a new day planner that helps Coast Salish youth on the south island connect to their culture

▶ Play Segment 9:15 ◀ Share Segment

Katharina Stocker is executive director of NĪĒ TU,O Child and Family Services Society.

Aired: Nov. 21, 2023

On The Island 9:18

The W̱SÁNEĆ Leadership Council has signed a historic letter of understanding with the Province - we spoke with Chief Dom Tom is the President of the Gregor Craigie spoke with Chief Dom Tom, the President of the W̱SÁNEĆ Leadership Council.

Our clients received local and national attention for their significant initiatives.

- Spilling Tea Podcast hosts were invited for an interview on CBC Radio, following our successful launch party.
- Our work on NĪĒ TU,O's Culture & Care Daily Planner lead to a feature on CBC Radio's 'On The Island'.
- We provided a media relations campaign, inviting local and national media to cover the W̱SÁNEĆ Land Trust Society's historic Land Back Ceremony.

ABOUT US

In addition to onsite and remote communications support services, our downtown office space provides our clients and community with access to podcasting and audio/video/photography recording studios.

Remarkable Communications, is a team of 10 (and growing) professionals experienced working with community and proficient in all areas of communications.

AMPLIFYING INDIGENOUS VOICES.

remarkablecommunications.com

LET'S WORK TOGETHER

Website

remarkablecommunications.com